Vice-President for Debate
The Yale Political Union
1951 Yale Station
New Haven, CT 06520

Dear Ms. Charters:

I greatly appreciate the kind invitation you extended to me to keynote a debate on the role of the CIA before the Yale Political Union.

I am afraid, however, that I must decline your thoughtful invitation. My schedule of official commitments is simply too crowded for the foreseeable future.

I am nevertheless grateful to you for thinking of me and I wish you and the Union every success.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
